'Kill Chain: The Rise of the High-Tech Assassins,' Andrew Cockburn. If the aim of a given policy is to win at war, and if war is sometimes necessary in the name of defense, Cockburn also shows again and again that these bureaucrats have handed out contracts for boondoggles that put American soldiers at risk of death,...

Kill Chain | Andrew Cockburn | Macmillan

Kill chain. The term kill chain was originally used as a military concept related to the structure of an attack; consisting of target identification, force dispatch to target, decision and order to attack the target, and finally the destruction of the target. Conversely, the idea of "breaking" an opponent's kill chain is a method...
