As of Fall of 2017, we are beginning the process of Revisoning the Parish Pastoral Council. Last April Bishop Mitch made a pastoral visit to St. Francis of Assisi Parish. One of his recommendations was that our Pastoral Council move away from being a council concerned with the "nuts and bolts" of the parish to a council that is truly pastoral in nature and one with a vision.

2 Many publications were consulted in the development of these guidelines especially: Revisoning the Parish Pastoral Council, Mary Ann Gubish and Susan Jenny, SC, Paulist Press. Pastoral Councils in Today's Catholic Parish, Mark F. Fischer, Twenty-Third Publications. Additional resources are noted at the end of the Appendix.

Guidelines for Parish Pastoral Councils

The Parish Pastoral Council is a leadership ministry within the family of St. Ann. The PPC implements a parish pastoral plan reached by consensus. The plan is framed by the seven essential elements of parish life and grounded in the parish mission statement. The council is committed to empowering ministry leaders, parish staff and parishioners.
