STUDENT SPOTLIGHT These are our students that are nominated by our teachers and staff. The guidelines were to pick those students that are academically sound, those that help peers, those that are model students or have done something extraordinary to help out a fellow student or do something to keep the school safe and clean.

Beginning with the 2014-15 school year, the Effingham County School District will no longer mass print report cards and progress reports. Parents will need to access the grade report information in one of two ways: 1) Via the Infinite Campus Parent Portal or 2) By requesting that hard copies of the grades be sent home upon each release of progress reports and report cards.

See the map and database below. More than 1,300 healthcare providers operate on the edge of the U.S. healthcare system. They are critical access hospitals, small facilities that have fewer than 25 beds and are often in remote, rural areas and provide needed care to smaller populations. In fact, guidelines from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services mandate critical hospitals be no ...
