The Pearl Chapter 1 Flashcards | Quizlet

News about Kino's pearl travels fast across town. Unfortunately, everyone is self-serving: the priest hears about the pearl and thinks about repairs needed for the church, the shopkeepers think about the clothes they could sell to Kino, etc. Then the doctor realizes Kino was the guy from earlier, and he thinks about Paris and fine dining.

The Pearl Chapter 3 Summary - Shmoop

The Pearl Summary and Analysis of Chapter 3. In his description of the pearl buyers, Steinbeck claims that, although there are many of them, they are essentially one. This aligns with the idea of segments of the community as a collective that permeates The Pearl; as Steinbeck describes the town, it is like "a colonial animal" with its own emotion,...
